

Lieutenant Tyler Davies, United States Navy

Lieutenant Tyler Davies is a native of Kennesaw, Georgia, and graduated from North Cobb High School in June 2000. He enlisted in the U.S. Navy and completed basic training at Recruit Training Command Great Lakes, Illinois, in August 2000.

Tyler completed Aviation Electronics Technician “A” School at Naval Aviation Technical Training Center, Naval Air Station (NAS) Pensacola, Florida, and reported to NAS Oceana, Virginia, for Radar Communications (RADCOM) “C” school. Upon completion of RADCOM training, he reported to Aviation Intermediate Maintenance Department (AIMD), NAS Oceana, in June 2001. While assigned to AIMD Oceana, he completed deployments aboard USS George Washington (CVN 73) and USS Enterprise (CVN 65) in support of multiple NATO operations.

Tyler reported to Fleet Readiness Center (FRC) Southwest Site Point Mugu, California, in September 2004, where he served in the Avionics Division. In 2007, he was selected as FRC Southwest Site Point Mugu and Commander Airborne Early Warning Wing Sailor of the Year. While assigned to FRC, Tyler attended the University of La Verne, Riverside, California, and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Organizational Management in May 2007. He then reported to Naval Station Newport, Rhode Island, for Officer Candidate School in September 2007 and was commissioned as an Ensign in the U.S. Navy.

Tyler reported to NAS Pensacola for aviation indoctrination in January 2008. He completed primary flight training in the T-34C Mentor at NAS Whiting Field, Florida, then transferred to NAS Meridian, Mississippi, for advanced flight training in the T-45C Goshawk. He received his wings of gold in June 2010.

Tyler then reported to Strike Fighter Squadron (VFA) 106, the “Gladiators,” at NAS Oceana, in July 2010 for initial training in the F/A-18E/F Super Hornet.

Tyler reported to Strike Fighter Squadron (VFA) 22, the “Fighting Redcocks,” at NAS Lemoore, California, in August 2011, where he served as Assistant Line Division Officer, Drug and Alcohol Program Awareness Officer, Motorcycle Safety Officer, Schedules Officer, Air-to-Ground Training Officer, and a squadron Forward-Air Controller (Airborne) (FAC(A)). While assigned to VFA-22, Tyler deployed aboard USS Carl Vinson (CVN 70) and flew in support of Operation Enduring Freedom.

Tyler returned to VFA-106 in August 2014 as an instructor pilot and also served as Auxiliary Retail Outlet Officer, Drug and Alcohol Program Awareness Officer, Suicide Prevention Coordinator, FAC(A), Strike Representative, and Assistant Strike Phase Head.

Tyler joined the Blue Angels in September 2015. He has accumulated more than 1,500 flight hours and 220 carrier-arrested landings. His decorations include four Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medals, and various personal and unit awards.
