

Lieutenant Bryan Pace, United States Navy

Lieutenant Bryan Pace is a native of Cambridge, Massachusetts, and graduated from Boston College High School in 2002. He attended Mount Ida College Newton, Massachusetts, where he graduated with an Associate of Science in Funeral Service in 2004. He then attended the University of Massachusetts Amherst, Amherst, Massachusetts, and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Judaic and Near Eastern Studies. Bryan reported to Officer Candidate School at Naval Station Newport, Rhode Island, in November 2010 and was commissioned an Ensign in the U.S. Navy.

Bryan reported to Navy Supply Corps School, Newport, Rhode Island, in March 2011, where he completed the Basic Qualification Course, Department Head Course, and Department Head Leadership Course. He then reported to Naval Submarine School Groton, Connecticut, where he completed the Submarine Officer Basic Course. He then reported to USS Rhode Island (SSBN 740) (Blue) at Naval Submarine Base, Kings Bay, Georgia, where he served as Supply Officer and earned his qualification as a Submarine Supply Corps Officer. During his time in the silent service, he completed three strategic deterrent patrols and provided logistical, financial, and support services.

Bryan then reported to Strike Fighter Squadron (VFA) 101, Eglin Air Force Base, Fort Walton Beach, Florida, in June 2014 and served as Supply Officer, Facilities Manager, Material Control Officer, Hazardous Material Officer, and Command Fitness Leader. He qualified as a Naval Aviation Supply Officer and provided support for the Navy's first F-35 Lightning II squadron.

Bryan joined the Blue Angels in September 2016. His decorations include three Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal and various personal and unit awards.

Handout Bio

Lieutenant Bryan Pace is a native of Cambridge, Massachusetts, and graduated from Boston College High School in 2002. He attended Mount Ida College Newton, Massachusetts, where he graduated with an Associate of Science in Funeral Service in 2004. He then attended the University of Massachusetts Amherst, Amherst, Massachusetts, and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Judaic and Near Eastern Studies. Bryan reported to Officer Candidate School at Naval Station Newport, Rhode Island, in November 2010 and was commissioned an Ensign in the U.S. Navy.

Bryan joined the Blue Angels in September 2016. His decorations include three Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal and various personal and unit awards.